BURWASH, Rev. Nathaniel M (Victoria College) February/1919 (074)

Victoria College, Toronto, Feb. 12th, 1919.

Sir Robert Falconer, K.C.M.G., LL.D.,
The University of Toronto.

Dear Sir Robert;

Since calling on you yesterday I have thought over your very kind offer to assist in the preparation of the biographical volume of my father, and it seems to me that you would be in a much better position than any one else to form an estimate of his place in university affairs during the last few years of his work - the ways in which he made himself felt, and the objects in which he seemed most interested.

If you could find time to contribute something along this or such other lines as may seem best to you, I am sure that the staff and friends of Victoria, and others who are interested, would appreciate the kindness very much, as I would myself.

My suggestion would be that a chapter, of such length as you decide upon, at the end of the book, would be contributed by you.

Hoping that you may be able to help in this way, I remain,

Yours very respectfully,

E. M. Burwash.

Rev. E. H. Burwash,

Victoria College,

Toronto.

Dear Mr. Burwash:

I shall be glad to write a short chapter on the work of your father during the last years of his life when I had the privilege of being on intimate terms with him in university affairs.

Would you kindly let me know when you will need it ? If it were possible to delay it until the summer it would be a relief to me as at present I am rather overloaded with work.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
